Most of us have either gone through,
or know others who are facing,
the trauma of long-term relationship breakdowns or divorce.

The heartache of separation and divorce brings many challenges and sometimes unexpected emotions, including shock, anger, pain, hatred, grief and hopefully, ultimately, acceptance.

This morning's session will aim to bring some insight into, what can be, stages of divorce and will consider forgiveness, healing, moving on and new relationships.

Cost of the Course £8
